

Dr Suyi Wang 王淑誼博士

Dr Wang is an IB Program Leader for Diploma program (DP) evaluation, an IB School visit team leader, and a consultant for IB school authorization. She also serves as a visiting committee member of the Accrediting Commission for Schools & Western Association of Schools and Colleges. At the same time, Dr Wang became an adjunct assistant professor at the Graduate Institute of Teaching Chinese as a Second/Foreign Language of the National Kaohsiung Normal University after retiring from her leadership roles in international school settings.

Dr Wang served as the Chief Academic Officer at the Shrewsbury International School Asia and the Director of the Chinese Program at the Shanghai American School. She taught Chinese at the International School of Beijing and the Western Academy of Beijing for 14 years. In addition, Dr Wang actively served the IB in different roles, including deputy chief examiner, workshop leader, consultant for curriculum reviews, evaluator for the online course and Online Curriculum Centre faculty member. Before joining the international schools, she was a full-time lecturer at two renowned universities in Seoul, the Hankuk University of Foreign Study and Ewha Woman's University.

Dr Wang is devoted to promoting constructivist approaches to teaching and learning. She has presented at conferences and teacher workshops regarding language and bilingual/multilingual education, and IB education..